

INSTANT ROOM

ELIZABETH BAUER

Pull up a chair, meet Liz. She knows the rules, but she's not afraid to tweak them. Just check out this dramatic dining room.

Produced by ORLI BEN-DOR

MK.TAN-10

1. CHINESE GARDEN (IN TOBACCO); GLAZED COTTON

BEST FOR: Curtains

"Curtains set the tone of a space. I love these bright colors against the tobacco background." HAZELTON HOUSE: hazeltonhouse.com.

2. FAUX BOIS (IN LAGOON/AQUA); LINEN, COTTON, RAYON

BEST FOR: End chairs

"Fabrics with embroidery or top stitching often feel dated, but this one changed my mind." KELLY WEARSTLER FOR GROUNDWORKS BY LEE JOFA: leejofa.com.

3. WHITE #7B; COTTON

BEST FOR: Chair seats and settee

"It's a casual fabric, but it has lots of character, so it's versatile. It reminds me of a tunic I could wear to the beach, then straight to dinner." MURIEL BRANDOLINI THROUGH HOLLAND & SHERRY: hollandandsherry.com.

4. DONEGAL TWEED (IN FUCHSIA); WOOL

BEST FOR: Pillows

"I love anything tweed. I'm a preppy girl at heart, so there's always a little prep in my designs." SEQUANA THROUGH HOLLAND & SHERRY: hollandandsherry.com.

5. PRIMA ALPACA (IN LIME); ALPACA

BEST FOR: Pillows

"It feels and looks like cashmere, at half the price." SANDRA JORDAN: sandrajordan.com.

6. WOVEN RATTAN (IN BALI BROWN); PAPER, GRASS

BEST FOR: Wall panels

"The contrast between this textured grasscloth and the smooth, reflective red lacquer brings drama to the room." PHILLIP JEFFRIES: phillipjeffries.com.

7. GERANIUM 17-1753 TPX; PAINT

BEST FOR: High-gloss paint

"Every house should have a red room—my homage to Diana Vreeland!" PANTONE: pantone.com. ●